Wyoming has not enacted legislation to create a rare disease advisory council.

Individual Insurance Market Protections

Pre-existing conditions protections: Only current federal protections apply in Wyoming.

Short-term, limited-duration and association health plans: Wyoming limits the initial contract duration of short-term, limited-duration health plans to six months. Associations must provide employers and residents with information about ACA exchange plan rates and benefits compared to the AHP and must disclose if they are being compensated for the sale of the plan. Self-funded association health plans must satisfy the same licensure and financial standards as commercial insurers.

Reinsurance: Wyoming has not yet sought a section 1332 waiver to establish a reinsurance program.
